Charles Estienne Houdelette, Huguenot, was the founder of the Houdlette family in America.

A fac-simile of his signature (from a document dated June 1, 1754) appears on the title-page.

He was born in France in 1707, and during the persecution of Huguenots that followed the hollow Peace of 1748 fled with his family to Germany, thence by the way of Rotterdam to Boston, landing there in 1751. He settled in what is now Dresden, Maine, where he died in 1784.
